A Joyous Christmas Day To You All

THOMAS JEFFERSON JOLLY SUMMONED

One Of Breckenridge County's Great Old Men Goes To His Reward.—Died Friday Afternoon

FUNERAL HELD SUNDAY

Irvington, Ky., Dec. 19 (Special).—Death has again taken home to glory one of our oldest and most highly respected citizens, Thomas Jefferson Jolly who died of heart trouble at his home near Bewleyville on Friday afternoon about three o'clock. The circumstances surrounding his death were particularly sad as his body was found some distance from his home by his grandson, Mr. Roy D. Gain. Mr. Jolly was eighty-two years old and he had been in declining health for several months but yet his death was unexpected. Mr. Jolly was ripe in the service of the Master, having been for a number of years a lifelong Christian, eager and faithful in advancing the cause of Christ and a devoted member of the Bewleyville Methodist church. He was beloved by all and had the well merited esteem of all who knew him.

Up to a few years ago, Mr. Jolly was Superintendent of the Sunday-School and he was one of the most active and consistent members of that Sunday-School and church.

It does us good, amid the busy whirl of our practical lives, to stop occasionally and reverently lift the veil of the past and glance backward across the years of the excellent trait of character of a true and devoted Christian of the olden type. The funeral services were largely attended and conducted from the Bewleyville Methodist church by the Rev. May on Sunday morning at ten o'clock after which the Masons took charge of the body and interred it in the Cedar Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Jolly is survived by his wife, one daughter and a son. Miss Blanch Jolly and Mr. Will Jolly besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

From Mrs. Couty.

Dear Mr. Babbage: Inclosed please find one dollar, for which mark me up till Dec. 15, 1911. I do not want to miss a copy as we are always glad to hear from Cloverport. All the Breckenridge county folks around are well and happy. You can send me the farm paper. With best wishes to you and yours for a merry Christmas and a happy new year. Yours truly, Mrs. J. E. Couty, Nickerson, Kans. R. F. D. No. 1.

Dr. Baker, Registrar.

Dr. J. T. Baker has been named as the local registrar of vital statistics by the state board, and he will get ready to enforce the new law, which was passed by the last legislature. It is one of the lengthiest laws passed, taking up fifteen pages of the published acts of 1910, and by some it is regarded as the most important law of the session. —Hancock Clarion.

A Friend of The News.

Dear Mr. Babbage: Enclosed find one dollar, for which please extend my subscription one year. I do not like to miss an issue of the home paper. Sincerely yours, S. C. Bates, Marion, Ohio.

HARDINSBURG NEWS BUREAU:

BY OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

See Dr. Walker for your dental work. Mrs. W. R. Moorman, of Glen Dean, was the guest of Mrs. J. C. DeHaven, Friday.

Marriage licenses: Sam Smiley and Lina Kissinger, both of Sere; Nelson Gardner and Zilpha Compton, both of Garfield; Homer Pile and Cora E. Tucker, both of Mook.

H. M. Beard and Paul Compton were in Louisville last week and purchased carpet, paper and furniture for the Masonic Hall, which will be thoroughly furnished.

Miss Mattie Moorman, of Glen Dean, was the guest of misses Hannah and Judith Beard a few days last week.

Supt. Driskell has but ten more schools to visit, all of which he expects to see this week.

Judge Moorman was in Louisville on legal business last week.

If the best is not too good for you Lewisport Best flour is the flour you ought to use. Sold by J. H. Gardner.

A protracted meeting will begin at the M. E. Church, South, on the second Sunday in January.

Judge Chelf, looking much improved in health, was here two days last week.

An interesting well attended meeting of the teachers of the First Educational Division was held here Saturday. There was a good attendance from other districts. It was voted to publish Miss Bertha Walls' excellent paper on school environment.

Miss Hannah Beard read The Belts at the school exercises this morning. Miss Beard thinks of doing post graduate work in expression, and may soon enter one of the famous schools of the country.

Luke B. Reeves bought for $1,000 the brick corner, lately owned by Dr. Mc-Mullen, and now occupied by H. J. Roberts' grocery store.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. Church, South, Sunday on account of the pastor's visiting his parents, with whom he has not spent Christmas for several years.

David Driskell went to Garfield Saturday for a few days' visit.

Homer Pile, of Mook, and Miss Cora Tucker, of the same neighborhood were married in the parlor of the M. E. parsonage Friday afternoon in the presence of a few relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. Pile is an energetic young farmer, son of C. C. Pile, deceased. The bride is the daughter of S. R. Tucker. These popular young people begin life with the happiest wishes of a multitude of friends.

President and Mrs. J. W. Hughes of Kingswood, were in town Saturday.

Jos. Durham and Claude Mercer attended the music recital at Kingswood Saturday night.

Lon Rogers, Examiner of State Banks, has been here this week examining the Bank of Hardinsburg & Trust Co., and Farmers Bank of this place. The last session of the State Legislature passed a law for the examination of all the banks in the state under the supervision of the Sec'y of State. This was vetoed by the Governor. The Sec'y of State then put on foot a plan for examination, under his supervision, of all banks whose officers and directors would voluntarily consent to be examined. Under this plan the two banks at this place were examined this week. So far, these are the only two banks in this county that have consented to be examined.

Rev. Fielding Howard, of Kingswood, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Alexander Sunday night.

STORIES WRITTEN

While The Press Thunders

BY LOUISE

The letters to Santa Claus are the cheeriest little articles we have ever published. They come only once a year and we think, are well worth publishing and reading.

"Don't forget mamma and papa and little sister."—Isn't that the real Christmas spirit?

"If you have anything left nice for a little boy nine years of age, it would be appreciated by your little friend."—Christmas would be perfect joy if all of us were this easily satisfied.

"I still thank you for the many pretty things you brought me last Christmas."—This gratitude that lingers is genuine.

"I try to be a good boy."—Such an honest little fellow will, no doubt be successful and have a great Christmas. "I will not ask for any more."—A wise young man who knows not to ride a good horse to death and annoy Santa Claus with so many requests.

"I love my teacher."—And this is the secret of a happy Christmas! Love, good will toward men, even our enemies.

Needn't be surprised to find the ox in the ditch next Sunday for tis Christmas, and what few of us are ever ready and waiting for that glorious day?

It's great to have the Christmas spirit, though it doesn't come until the very last minute.

A few extra vases, handkerchiefs and "the like", might come in handy Christmas morning for the stores will all be closed. Somebody, you didn't expect, is certain to send you a present and touch a responsive chord in your heart.

If you go in debt for Christmas, there is consolation in the fact, no matter how much you give away, it always comes back.

Should Christmas be a disappointment to you, just look at it in Aunt Mary Dean's optimistic way, "Child, there's another time coming."

The loveliest thought of Christmas is that we do not have to go to a palace to find the glory of this event, the greatest gift ever given to the world was found in a manger, and just our gratitude for the Christ Child, is enough, if we stop to think, to make our happiness supreme.

Six Carloads of Mules

Shipped From Elizabethtown.

Six carloads of mules were shipped from Elizabethtown last week. The News says:

P. Whittaker, of Columbia, Tenn., bought a carload of mules from Claud Pemberton and Tom Marshall, who owned them together. He has shipped them South.

Mr. Langley, of Dublin, Ga., bought from various parties a carload of both horses and mules and shipped them out Tuesday.

W. L. McAdams, of Columbia, Tenn., arrived several days ago and is looking for a load.

As stated in Tuesday's paper S. T.

Pack shipped two loads, George Emerson, one and Rod Warfield, one. The latter went to Montezuma Wednesday to dispose of his.

Major Roderick Warfield returned Tuesday night from Howardstown, Nelson County, where he purchased an extra fine carload of mules. There are twenty-eight in the lot and they were bought at an average of $210 each, making the bunch cost nearly $6,000. They are among the finest around here and have been shipped to Mr. Warfield's farm at Long Grove, where they will be quartered until sold.

Katherine Lucile Mattingly.

A little girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mattingly last Wednesday evening. She has been named Katherine Lucile.

Miss Willa Drury was the hostess Friday evening of a meeting of her club.

Mrs. G. L. Brady and daughter, Miss Josie, spent two days in Louisville the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tony McCoy.

Turkeys will be higher here for Christmas than they were Thanksgiving, and everybody thought they were high enough then. Before Thanksgiving the dealers were paying from 13 to 14 cents per pound, gross, for the fowls, but now they are offering 15 cents and are anxious to get them at that price.

The spelling match Friday night was largely attended, the door receipts being $47.50, at ten cents each. At eleven o'clock Coleman Lyon, of Hudson, was left upon the floor, the winner of the ten dollars given by the county officials. Miss Edna Henninger, of Cave Spring, won the five dollars given by B. F. Beard & Co. Judge Moorman's International Dictionary went to the New Salem school, near Mook, Mitchell Gregory and Shickri Leslie being its winners.

On the evening of the 27th Breckenridge lodge No. 67 will elect officers for the ensuing year. All members are requested to be present.

Miss Bennie Walker and Mr. Gardner Board were united in marriage at Mr. Jas. W. Miller's, the bride's home, Sunday afternoon, Rev. Howard officiating. They left Monday morning for Louisville, where they are spending the week.

The Public School will render a Christmas program on Friday afternoon from 2 to 3 o'clock. All patrons and those interested are cordially invited to come.

Mrs. L. K. May was called away to Campbellsburg last Sunday on account of the serious illness of her sister.

Robt. Woods, Louisville's postmaster, came down Sunday to attend the funeral of Mr. T. J. Jolly.

The Rev. Chas. R. Shepard, of Louisville, will fill the pulpit of the Baptist church on next Sunday morning. Rev. May will preach in the evening.

The two hardware firms, McGlothlan & Piggott and J. D. Ashcraft have consolidated and incorporated the firm The Irvington Hardware and Implement Company with J. D. Ashcraft, President and General Manager, J. M. Herndon, Secretary and Treasurer. After the first of the year they are going to build an up-to-date brick building on the present site of McGlothlan & Piggott.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Herndon are moving into their handsome residence on Woodland Ave., that has just been completed.

Mrs. Rice, of Guston, spent a few days last week with Mrs. Darmond Woe. Mrs. Ab Dowell, who has been visiting relatives in Glen Dean has returned.

and quick efforts. The roof was badly damaged.

The City Bridge is already for Santa Claus. Both iron tubes have been placed and the apron also attached. The job is a most successful one and the contractors are receiving many congratulations. The bridge crew is quite missed. They were company for those who crossed the bridge daily and their good work was watched with interest.

A New Firm For Irvington.

The Irvington Hardware & Implement Co., is a new corporation for Irvington. It has taken over the stocks of Hardware and Farm Implements of J. D. Ashcraft and McGlothlan & Piggott and consolidated them under one head and management. J. M. Herndon, a well-known business man and successful farmer, has taken stock in the new firm and will take an active part in the business. With increased capital they will be able to carry a larger stock, buy in larger quantities and serve their trade to a much better advantage, giving them a much better stock and a larger variety to select from. The trade in this line is growing so fast in Irvington that such a move as this was necessary to accommodate the trade. It is not a combination to advance prices, but to reduce them and the buyers of this class of goods in that section are fortunate in having a house so well equipped as this will be to buy from. Mr. J. D. Ashcraft, Mr. J. M. Herndon and Mr. T. N. McGlothlan are the active members and will, as heretofore, try to serve their trade as they have in the past, satisfactorily. We wish the new concern a long and successful career.

Dr. Simons' Infirmary has become a source of pride to this city. The Doctor is continually adding new equipments to the operating room and the other apartments. The office has been newly papered and casts a rich glow of light through the building. One room, being furnished for the use of patients, is papered in colonial paper, with gold tints. Dr. Simons and Dr. McDonald delight in receiving their friends at the office and one of the two can usually be found there.

The residence of Mr. Bob Willis caught fire from a train spark Sunday morning about 7:30 o'clock. In an instant after the alarm was given there were enough men around the house to eat it, had it been cake, and the fire was soon extinguished by strenuous

Ninety Years Old Mail Carrier.

Hart county has the oldest mail carrier in the United States in Frank Fortbis, who is ninety years old and carries the mail daily from Munfordsville to Cub Run, a distance of fifteen miles on horseback. He has been carrying the mail so long that the memory of man runneth not to the contrary. He has lost three teeth and has worn false teeth made out of seasoned hickory cut so that they fit around the other teeth. They last for several years and when they wear out he cuts out some more and claims they beat the teeth dentists make. He has asked the government to retire him on a pension and it looks like he is entitled to it. —Elizabethtown News.

The City Council.

At an adjourned meeting of the city council held Monday night, the report of the supervisors of the tax list was received and adopted. The tax rate for the ensuing year was put at the old figure, seventy-five cents per one hundred. Marion Weatherholt was allowed a claim for maintaining approaches to the bridge and the meeting adjourned.
